About The Resurrection Project

Now in its 26th year, The Resurrection Project (TRP) is a powerful and effective social enterprise that seamlessly blends community development, community organizing, and advocacy with human service delivery to create vibrant, healthier, and involved communities. With its innovative three-pillar Community Resurrection Model, TRP empowers individuals and families by creating community ownership, building community wealth, and by serving as stewards of community assets.

In 1990, TRP began with an initial seed capital of $30,000 from area parishes, which has since been leveraged into $404 million in community investment.

Our Vision 2020 and Imagine More

Vision 2020 is a strategic initiative to achieve even more impact in the next five years than in the past 25, transforming some of the most troubled neighborhoods into communities of promise. Our ambitious goal is to enable 60,000 catalysts of change and create more than $460 million in community investment by 2020.

We have embarked on an unprecedented campaign, Imagine More, to raise more than $25 million to fund Vision 2020.

Where we operate and why

Last year, we served over 9,050 families from all over the metropolitan Chicago region, and reached hundreds more through community events and grassroots outreach. Most TRP program participants come from low-income households and 88% are Latino. Predominantly Mexican first- and second-generation immigrant households face language, cultural, economic, and educational barriers; TRP provides the support and education to help families thrive. We revitalize communities by creating economic integration, building community assets and wealth, and empowering individuals to be catalysts of change.
